Temenos

Principal Business Trainer, Regional Training Manager

July 2001 - August 2009 (8 years 2 months)

Worked in Corporate Training as Principal Business Trainer and Regional Training Manager. At the time of leaving, I was in charge of Design, Development and Delivery of all Business and Technical courses and managing a team of around 20 trainers.

I have personally delivered client and internal training programs in more than 25 countries in Europe, Africa, Asia Pacific, Middle east and US. Delivered trainings in Retail, Credit, Corporate, Treasury and Accounting and Reporting streams and always rated very high.

I was a major contributor and also maintained Question Banks for Temenos Certified Consultants Program (TCCP) in Retail, Credit, Corporate, Treasury and Accounting and Reporting streams.

I have also delivered soft skills programs to Temenos consultants and Trainers in Fundamentals of Project Management, Presentation skills, Negotiation skills and Training the Trainer.

I was awarded the GEM award (Going the Extra Mile) in 2007 for outstanding training delivery and managing timely delivery of all business courses for the new Induction program launched for new recruits in Temenos.

Throughout my stint, I was rated as Exceeding Expectations in all the years. While at Temenos, I was also accredited by QA (Quality Assurance) of United Kingdom to conduct their Fundamentals of Project Management course for Temenos consultants
